

BADU (MULGRAVE ISLAND)

Making lace at the Government School

Teacher and Nat making

Our little Badu nigger boys

Boat repairing

Meeting
Jan 1, 1940

Some Badu girls

The burial ground of Badu natives. The slaves and printing stone of the natives

BADU (MULGRAVE ISLAND).

Badu Trading Station owned by the Papuan Industries Corporation.

A general view of Ogea Trading Station at Badu.

Trading boats belonging to the Trading Co. (the main trading company) at Badu (Mulgrave Island).

A house party at Ogea - Mr. F. W. Walker in the foreground.

The Anglican Mission House.

Government school children, teacher and assistant native teacher.

Badu native village with church in the background.

The teacher, councillors and policeman. Photo by T. H. Brown.

APPROVING OUR "STAND FAST" RESOLUTION.

Public Meeting in Albert Square on the Second Anniversary of the War

1915

The Roll of Honour.

QUEENSLAND CASUALTIES AT THE FRONT.

PTE. J. B. FORREST.
Wounded.PTE. G. D. MOORE.
Wounded.PTE. R. L. CLEARY.
Wounded.PTE. C. F. SMITH.
Wounded.PTE. R. BLAKE.
Wounded.PTE. L. HOPLE.
Wounded.PTE. G. H. YOUNG.
Wounded.PTE. R. J. GREENWOOD.
Wounded.PTE. P. BOYD.
Wounded.PTE. G. JARDA.
Wounded.L.CPL. A. OSBORNE.
Man of colour.PTE. S. L. BENSON.
Wounded.PTE. R. J. WESTON.
Wounded.PTE. T. FERGUSON.
Wounded.PTE. J. J. BENSON.
—Papers and Tubes.MR. ARNOLD STIRLING.
Was, while serving as a soldier in England, twice struck by a bullet, once in the chest and once in the leg, and is supposed to have been captured by the Germans.A MEMOIR OF A MAN.
This Australian soldier, having earned twelve medals, was to a "Gallant" and entitled to a double bar.SHIRAZER DOG.
Was a dog character, sometimes for helpings at the hotel door of the Queensland Hotel. This dog was with the British, the British soldiers, to the last building in the Commonwealth.TARA.
Was a dog character, sometimes for helpings at the hotel door of the Queensland Hotel. This dog was with the British, the British soldiers, to the last building in the Commonwealth.THE WESTON FAMILY.
Who last year in the month of March for Victoria Frontage.

—A. J. Wilson photo.